Rules of Procedure for Shareholder Meetings

Article 1: This Procedure is instituted in accordance with the Corporate Governance Best Practice Principles for TWSE/GTSM-listed Companies for the establishment of a viable corporate governance system under the Shareholders' Meeting, vitalization of the monitoring function and strengthening the function of management.

Article 2: Unless otherwise specified by other applicable laws or the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, the parliamentary procedure of the Shareholders' Meeting of the Company shall be governed by This Procedure.

Article 3: Calling for the session of the Shareholders' Meeting and notice of session

1. The Board shall call for the session unless otherwise specified in other applicable laws.
Changes to how this Corporation convenes its shareholders meeting shall be resolved by the board of directors, and shall be made no later than mailing of the shareholders meeting notice.
The company shall hold a videoconference of the shareholders meeting, unless otherwise stipulated in the stock affairs handling guidelines of public offering companies, it shall be specified in the articles of association, and shall be resolved by the board of directors. The resolution of the board of directors shall be passed, and the video conference shareholders meeting shall be implemented by the resolution of the board of directors with the attendance of more than two-thirds of the directors and the consent of more than half of the directors.
2. The Company shall have the Annual Meeting of Shareholders notice, proxy and the proposal and information on admission, discussions and directors election and dismissal compiled into electronic files and uploaded to the MOPS 30 days prior to the annual meeting of shareholders or 15 days prior to the extraordinary meeting of shareholders.
If, however, this Corporation has the paid-in capital of NT$10 billion or more as of the last day of the most current fiscal year, or total shareholding of foreign shareholders and PRC shareholders reaches 30% or more as recorded in the register of shareholders of the shareholders meeting held in the immediately preceding year, transmission of these electronic files shall be made by 30 days before the regular shareholders meeting.
In addition, before 15 days before the date of the shareholders meeting, this Corporation shall also have prepared the shareholders meeting agenda and supplemental meeting materials and made them available for review by shareholders at any time. The meeting agenda and supplemental materials shall also be displayed at this Corporation and the professional shareholder services agent designated thereby.

This Corporate shall make the meeting agenda and supplemental meeting materials in the preceding paragraph available to shareholders for review in the following manner on the date of the shareholders meeting:

- (1) For physical shareholders meetings, to be distributed on-site at the meeting.
 - (2) For hybrid shareholders meetings, to be distributed on-site at the meeting and shared on the virtual meeting platform.
 - (3) For virtual-only shareholders meetings, electronic files shall be shared on the virtual meeting platform.
3. The notice and announcement shall include information on the reason for the session, and may be delivered via electronic means at the consent of the addressees.
 4. The election or dismissal of directors, amendments to the Company Corporate Charter (Articles of Incorporation), capital reduction, application for delisting, permission of competition by directors, converting earnings to capital gains, converting reserve to capital gains, dissolution, merger, division or the Company Act, and the Stock Exchange Act shall be stated in the reasons and the material information for convening the meeting not in the motion.
 5. Shareholders holding more than 1% of the outstanding shares issued by the Company may propose motions with the Company in the regular session. However, it is limited to one proposal and the more than one proposals presented will not be discussed in the meeting. However, the Board of Directors may include any shareholder's motion suggesting the promotion of public welfare or performance of social responsibility by the company.
 6. If any of the motions presented by shareholders are required for exclusion as motions in the agenda pursuant to Article 172-1 of the Company Act, the Board may exclude the motions from the agenda.
 7. The Company shall allow at least 10 days for announcement of acceptance of motions presented by shareholders, submission in writing or by electronic means, the status of the motions and the processing period prior to the period during which transaction of shares is prohibited before session of the Shareholders' Meeting.
 8. Each motion shall be limited to 300 words, or it will not be considered for listing as a motion in the agenda. Shareholders who present motions shall attend the session in person or appoint a proxy to attend the session and engage in the discussion on the motions.
 9. The result of handling the motions shall be made known to the shareholders who presented the motions prior to the notification day of the session of Shareholders' Meeting, and list the motions conforming to the requirements of this article on the notice of session. The board of directors is to give the reason why the shareholder's proposal is not included for discussion in shareholders' meeting.

Article 4: Shareholders may use the power of attorney prepared by the Company to appoint a proxy to attend each session of the Shareholders Assembly by specifying the scope of authorization.

1. Each shareholder may issue one power of attorney to appoint only 1 proxy. The power of attorney shall be delivered to the Company 5 days prior to the session of the Shareholders' Meeting. In case of repeated authorization, the authorization which comes first shall be served. However, exception is granted if the shareholder issues a proper declaration to withdraw the previous proxy arrangement.
2. If, after a proxy form is delivered to this Corporation, a shareholder wishes to attend the shareholders meeting online, a written notice of proxy cancellation shall be submitted to this Corporation two business days before the meeting date. If the cancellation notice is submitted after that time, votes cast at the meeting by the proxy shall prevail.

Article 5: The principle of choosing the place and time for the sessions of the Shareholders' Meeting.

1. The shareholders meeting must be held at a location that is suitable and convenient for shareholders to attend. The meeting must not commence anytime earlier than 9AM or later than 3PM. Independent Directors' opinions must be fully taken into consideration when deciding the time and venue of the meeting.
2. The restrictions on the place of the meeting shall not apply when this Corporation convenes a virtual-only shareholders meeting.

Article 6: Preparation of sign-in registry and related documents

1. The Company shall specify in its shareholders meeting notices the time during which attendance registrations for shareholders, solicitors and proxies (collectively "shareholders") will be accepted, the place to register for attendance, and other matters for attention.
2. The time during which shareholder attendance registrations will be accepted, as stated in the preceding paragraph, shall be at least 30 minutes prior to the time the meeting commences. The place at which attendance registrations are accepted shall be clearly marked and a sufficient number of suitable personnel assigned to handle the registrations. For virtual shareholders meetings, shareholders may begin to register on the virtual meeting platform 30 minutes before the meeting starts. Shareholders completing registration will be deemed as attend the shareholders meeting in person.
3. Shareholders shall attend shareholders meetings based on attendance cards, sign-in cards, or other certificates of attendance. This Corporation may not arbitrarily add requirements for other documents beyond those showing eligibility to attend presented by shareholders. Solicitors soliciting proxy forms shall also bring identification documents for verification.

4. This Corporation shall furnish the attending shareholders with an attendance book to sign, or attending shareholders may hand in a sign-in card in lieu of signing in.
5. This Corporation shall furnish attending shareholders with the meeting agenda book, annual report, attendance card, speaker's slips, voting slips, and other meeting materials. Where there is an election of directors or supervisors, pre-printed ballots shall also be furnished.
6. When the government or a juristic person is a shareholder, it may be represented by more than one representative at a shareholders meeting. When a juristic person is appointed to attend as proxy, it may designate only one person to represent it in the meeting.
7. In the event of a virtual shareholders meeting, shareholders wishing to attend the meeting online shall register with this Corporation two days before the meeting date.
8. In the event of a virtual shareholders meeting, this Corporation shall upload the meeting agenda book, annual report and other meeting materials to the virtual meeting platform at least 30 minutes before the meeting starts, and keep this information disclosed until the end of the meeting.

. Article 6-1 Convening virtual shareholders meetings and particulars to be included in shareholders meeting notice

To convene a virtual shareholders meeting, this Corporation shall include the follow particulars in the shareholders meeting notice:

1. How shareholders attend the virtual meeting and exercise their rights.
2. Actions to be taken if the virtual meeting platform or participation in the virtual meeting is obstructed due to natural disasters, accidents or other force majeure events, at least covering the following particulars:
 - (1) To what time the meeting is postponed or from what time the meeting will resume if the above obstruction continues and cannot be removed, and the date to which the meeting is postponed or on which the meeting will resume.
 - (2) Shareholders not having registered to attend the affected virtual shareholders meeting shall not attend the postponed or resumed session.
 - (3) In case of a hybrid shareholders meeting, when the virtual meeting cannot be continued, if the total number of shares represented at the meeting, after deducting those represented by shareholders attending the virtual shareholders meeting online, meets the minimum legal requirement for a shareholder meeting, then the shareholders meeting shall continue. The shares represented by shareholders attending the virtual meeting online shall be counted towards the total number of shares represented by shareholders present at the meeting, and the shareholders attending the virtual meeting online shall be deemed abstaining from voting on all proposals on meeting agenda of that shareholders meeting.

- (4) Actions to be taken if the outcome of all proposals have been announced and extraordinary motion has not been carried out.
3. To convene a virtual-only shareholders meeting, appropriate alternative measures available to shareholders with difficulties in attending a virtual shareholders meeting online shall be specified.

Article 7: The chairman and observers of the Shareholders' Meeting

1. If the convention of the Shareholders' Meeting is called by the Board, the Chairman of the Board shall preside over the session. In the absence of the Chairman, or the Chairman cannot perform its professed duties, the Vice Chairman shall act on behalf of and in the name of the Chairman. If there is no Vice Chairman, or in the absence of the Vice Chairman, or the Vice Chairman cannot perform the professed duties, the Chairman shall appoint one Executive Director to act as the proxy for the Chairman to preside over the session. If there is no Executive Director, the Chairman shall appoint a particular Director to act on behalf of and in the name of the Chairman. If not, the Executive Directors or Directors shall nominate one among themselves to preside over the session.
2. At least half of the Directors shall be present in a session of the Shareholders' Meeting called by the Board.
3. Where the session of the Shareholders' Meeting may be called by a third party other than the Board, the person who called for the session shall act as the chairman. If there are 2 persons or more called for the session, they should nominate one among themselves to preside over the session.
4. The Company may appoint the lawyers, certified public accountants being retained or related persons to attend the session of the Shareholders' Meeting as observers.

Article 8: The session shall be tracked by voice recording or videotaping.

1. This Corporation, beginning from the time it accepts shareholder attendance registrations, shall make an uninterrupted audio and video recording of the registration procedure, the proceedings of the shareholders meeting, and the voting and vote counting procedures.
2. The recorded materials of the preceding paragraph shall be retained for at least one year. If, however, a shareholder files a lawsuit pursuant to Article 189 of the Company Act, the recording shall be retained until the conclusion of the litigation.
3. Where a shareholders meeting is held online, this Corporation shall keep records of shareholder registration, sign-in, check-in, questions raised, votes cast and results of votes counted by this Corporation, and continuously audio and video record, without interruption, the proceedings of the virtual meeting from beginning to end.

4. The information and audio and video recording in the preceding paragraph shall be properly kept by this Corporation during the entirety of its existence, and copies of the audio and video recording shall be provided to and kept by the party appointed to handle matters of the virtual meeting.
5. In case of a virtual shareholders meeting, this Corporation is advised to audio and video record the back-end operation interface of the virtual meeting platform.

Article 9: Attendance at shareholders meetings shall be calculated based on numbers of shares. The number of shares in attendance shall be calculated according to the shares indicated by the attendance book and sign-in cards handed in, and the shares checked in on the virtual meeting platform, plus the number of shares whose voting rights are exercised by correspondence or electronically.

- 1 The Chairman shall announce the commencement of the session when the time has come, at the same time, relevant information such as the number of non-voting rights and the number of shares present will be announced. If the shareholders present in the meeting represent less than half of the outstanding shares, the Chairman shall announce the postponement of the meeting, but the time for postponement shall not be longer than one hour, and only two instances for 4 post-ponement are allowed. The Chairman may announce the meeting is adjourned if there remain insufficient shareholders who represent 1/3 of shareholding to attend the meeting after two meetings postponed. In the event of a virtual shareholders meeting, this Corporation shall also declare the meeting adjourned at the virtual meeting platform.
- 2 If the number of shareholders who are present after two instances of postponement represent more than 1/3 of the outstanding shares, the Company may make provisional division pursuant to Paragraph 1, Article 175 of the Company Act and notify the shareholders with the provisional decision for another round of the session to be held within 1 month thereafter. In the event of a virtual shareholders meeting, shareholders intending to attend the meeting online shall re-register to this Corporation in accordance with Article 6.
- 3 When, prior to conclusion of the meeting, the attending shareholders represent a majority of the total number of issued shares, the chair may resubmit the tentative resolution for a vote by the shareholders meeting pursuant to Article 174 of the Company Act.

Article 10: Discussion of the motions

1. If the Board calls for the session of the Shareholders' Meeting, it shall prepare the agenda. Voting on each motion (including extempore motion and amendment to original motions) is required. The meeting shall unfold in accordance with the agenda. The agenda cannot be changed unless the Shareholders Meeting resolved otherwise.

2. Where the session of the Shareholders' Meeting may be called by third parties other than the Board, the aforementioned rules shall stand.
3. Before the end of the discussion of motions on the agenda as stated in previous 2 paragraphs (including extemporary motions), the Chairman shall not announce for the adjournment of the session unless the Shareholders' Meeting resolved otherwise. If the Chairman acts in defiance of the parliamentary rules and thereby announces the adjournment of the session, other members of the Board shall take immediate action to assist the shareholders in session to keep the session in order. Accordingly, the shareholders in session shall nominate another person to act as the chairman to continue the session by a simple majority.
4. The Chairman shall provide the opportunity for the description and discussions of the motions and the amendment or extemporary motions proposed by the shareholders and conclude the discussion and proceed to balloting at a point where discussion is deemed sufficient and arrange adequate voting time.

Article 11: Expression of opinions by shareholders

1. Shareholders shall put down the summary of the speech on the slip provided, the account number (or attendance pass number), and account title. The Chairman shall arrange the priority for the forum.
2. Shareholders in session who just submitted the message slip but did not deliver the speech shall be deemed to have no opinion expressed. If the shareholder's actual comments differ from those stated in the Speak Request Form, the actual comments shall prevail.
3. Each shareholder may have the floor for delivery of the speech on the same motion once only, and may take the floor twice only at the approval of the Chairman. Only 5 minutes is allowed for each speech. If the content of the speech defies the parliamentary rules or deviates from the motion, the Chairman shall interrupt the speech.
4. If a particular shareholder is presenting a speech, other shareholders shall not interfere unless under the consent of the Chairman or the shareholder who is presenting the speech, or the Chairman shall stop any interference or interruption.
5. If a particular institutional shareholder appointed more than 2 representatives to the session, only 1 person may take the floor for delivery of speech on the same motion.
6. After a particular shareholder has delivered a speech, the Chairman shall respond to any query or appoint designated persons to respond to the queries.
7. Where a virtual shareholders meeting is convened, shareholders attending the virtual meeting online may raise questions in writing at the virtual meeting platform from the chair declaring the meeting open until the chair declaring the meeting adjourned. No more than two questions for the same proposal may be raised. Each question shall contain no more than 200 words. The regulations in paragraphs 1 to 5 do not apply.

- 8 As long as questions so raised in accordance with the preceding paragraph are not in violation of the regulations or beyond the scope of a proposal, it is advisable the questions be disclosed to the public at the virtual meeting platform.

Article 12: The calculation of shares for voting and the system of recusal

1. The votes to be cast by shareholders shall be taken on the basis of the number of shares represented.
2. In balloting, shareholders holding the shares without voting rights are excluded for the total outstanding shares bearing voting rights.
3. For motions that may involve the interest of particular shareholders or affect the interest of the Company, the shareholders concerned shall recuse from the balloting on these motions. Likewise, these shareholders shall not appoint proxies to participate in balloting.
4. The aforementioned quantity of shares not permitted for voting are excluded from the total number of voting shares of the shareholders.
5. If a particular party who has been appointed by 2 or more shareholders as proxy at the same time, the votes so cast under authorization shall not exceed 3% of the total voting shares, and the number of votes in excess of this limit will not be counted unless such party is a trust firm or a share registration agent approved by the competent authority of securities.

Article 13:

1. A shareholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share held, except when the shares are restricted shares or are deemed non-voting shares under Article 179, paragraph 2 of the Company Act..
2. Shareholders to exercise their voting rights in writing or by electronic means in the Shareholders' Meeting, and the methods of which shall be inscribed in the notice of Shareholders' Meeting. Shareholders who have voted in writing or using the electronic method are considered to have attended the shareholders meeting in person. However, they waive their rights to participate in any questions and motions or revisions to the original agendas that may arise during the shareholders meeting; it is therefore advisable that the Company avoid the submission of extraordinary motions and amendments to original proposals.
- 3 The expression of votes by correspondence or electronic means as mentioned in the previous paragraph shall be delivered to the office of the Company 2 days prior to the scheduled date of the session. If there are repetitions in the expression of intent, the initial expression shall stand. However, exception is granted if the shareholder issues a proper declaration to withdraw the previous vote.

- 4 If a particular shareholder desires to attend the session of the Shareholders' Meeting or Online after casting the vote by correspondence or electronic means, it shall revoke the previous expression of intent in voting in the same means as casting the votes no later than 2 days prior to the scheduled date of the session, or the votes cast by correspondence or electronic means shall be valid. If the shareholder has exercised written or electronic votes, and at the same time delegated a proxy to attend the shareholders meeting, then the voting decision exercised by the proxy shall prevail.
- 5 The Shareholders Assembly shall make decisions in a session with the presence of shareholders representing more than half of the outstanding shares and the consent by a simple majority of the shareholders in the session unless the Company Act or other applicable laws specify otherwise. At the time of a vote, for each proposal, the chair or a person designated by the chair shall first announce the total number of voting rights represented by the attending shareholders, followed by a poll of the shareholders. After the conclusion of the meeting, on the same day it is held, the results for each proposal, based on the numbers of votes for and against and the number of abstentions, shall be entered into the MOPS.
6. If there is an amendment to or a substitute of a particular motion, the Chairman sets the priority for decision as the original motion. If any of the amendment/substitute or original motion has been passed, it shall be deemed the resolution of the motion and no further polling is required.
7. The Chairman shall appoint scrutineers and polling clerks in witnessing and monitoring the balloting on the motions. Scrutineers must also be shareholders.
- 8 Vote counting for shareholders meeting proposals or elections shall be conducted in public at the place of the shareholders meeting. Immediately after vote counting has been completed, the results of the voting, including the statistical tallies of the numbers of votes, shall be announced on-site at the meeting, and a record made of the vote.
- 9 When this Corporation convenes a virtual shareholders meeting, after the chair declares the meeting open, shareholders attending the meeting online shall cast votes on proposals and elections on the virtual meeting platform before the chair announces the voting session ends or will be deemed abstained from voting.
- 10 In the event of a virtual shareholders meeting, votes shall be counted at once after the chair announces the voting session ends, and results of votes and elections shall be announced immediately.
- 11 When this Corporation convenes a hybrid shareholders meeting, if shareholders who have registered to attend the meeting online in accordance with Article 6 decide to attend the physical shareholders meeting in person, they shall revoke their registration two days before the shareholders meeting in the same manner as they registered. If their registration is not revoked within the time limit, they may only attend the shareholders meeting online.

- 12 When shareholders exercise voting rights by correspondence or electronic means, unless they have withdrawn the declaration of intent and attended the shareholders meeting online, except for extraordinary motions, they will not exercise voting rights on the original proposals or make any amendments to the original proposals or exercise voting rights on amendments to the original proposal.

Article 14: Points of election

1. An election of Directors and Supervisors may be held in a session of the Shareholders' Meeting, shall proceed in accordance the rules and regulations of the Company, and the election result shall be announced on the scene, including the elected directors and the weighted votes casted, and the unelected directors and the weighted votes casted
2. The ballots cast in the aforementioned election shall be sealed and signed by the scrutineers with the affixing of their signatures for keeping at least 1 year. However, if a shareholder makes a litigious claim against The Company according to Article 189 of The Company Act, the above mentioned documents must be retained until the end of the litigation.

Article 15:

1. The resolutions of the Shareholders' Meeting shall be kept as minutes of the meeting on record, affixed with the authorized signature/seal of the Chairman, and released to the shareholders within 20 days after the session. The preparation and distribution of the minutes of shareholders' meeting can be processed electronically.
2. The aforementioned minutes of the meeting on record may be circulated by announcement.
3. The minutes of the meeting on record shall contain details of the year, month, day of the session, the name of the chairman, the means of resolution, the summary of parliamentary process and voting results (including the weighted votes), of the meeting. If any election of directors is carried out, the minutes should specify the votes cast by each candidate. It shall be kept perpetually within the perpetuity of the Company.
- 4 Where a virtual shareholders meeting is convened, in addition to the particulars to be included in the meeting minutes as described in the preceding paragraph, the start time and end time of the shareholders meeting, how the meeting is convened, the chair's and secretary's name, and actions to be taken in the event of disruption to the virtual meeting platform or participation in the meeting online due to natural disasters, accidents or other force majeure events, and how issues are dealt with shall also be included in the minutes..

- 5 When convening a virtual-only shareholder meeting, other than compliance with the requirements in the preceding paragraph, this Corporation shall specify in the meeting minutes alternative measures available to shareholders with difficulties in attending a virtual-only shareholders meeting online

Article 16: Public disclosure

- 1 This Corporation shall compile in the prescribed format a statistical statement of the number of shares obtained by solicitors through solicitation, the number of shares represented by proxies and the number of shares represented by shareholders attending the meeting by correspondence or electronic means, and shall make an express disclosure of the same at the place of the shareholders meeting. The Company shall keep track on and compile the statistical data on the quantity of shares represented through assignment or represented by proxies in the required format on the day of the session, and disclose them explicitly on the scene of the meeting. In the event a virtual shareholders meeting, this Corporation shall upload the above meeting materials to the virtual meeting platform at least 30 minutes before the meeting starts, and keep this information disclosed until the end of the meeting.
- 2 During this Corporation's virtual shareholders meeting, when the meeting is called to order, the total number of shares represented at the meeting shall be disclosed on the virtual meeting platform. The same shall apply whenever the total number of shares represented at the meeting and a new tally of votes is released during the meeting.
3. Where some of the motions for resolutions may contain significant information under law or the requirements of the competent authority, the Company shall transmit such information to MOPS by designated deadline.

Article 17: The order of the meeting venue

1. The administrative staff of the Shareholders' Meeting shall wear arm badges or ID badges.
2. The Chairman shall command the prefect team or security guards to keep the order of the meeting venue. While maintaining order in the meeting, all picketers or security staffs must wear arm badges which identify their roles as "Staff".
3. The venue may be equipped with loud speaker systems for the shareholders. The Chairman shall stop any shareholder using other forms of loud speakers in the expression of opinion at the meeting venue.
4. Shareholders who defy the parliamentary procedure and interrupt the procedure of the session, and insubordinate to the instruction of the Chairman, the Chairman shall command the prefect team or the security guards to escort the shareholders concerned to vacate from the venue.

Article 18: Recess, resumption of the session

1. The Chairman may announce for recess in the course of the session. In the event of force majeure, the Chairman may announce for a suspension of the session and announce the time for resuming the session.
2. If the meeting venue is no longer available before the conclusion of the agenda (including the extemporary motions), the Shareholders' Meeting shall resolve to seek another place as the venue to continue the session.
3. The Shareholders' Meeting may resolve to postpone or continue the session within 5 days pursuant to Article 182 of the Company Act.

Article 19: Disclosure of information at virtual meetings

In the event of a virtual shareholders meeting, this Corporation shall disclose real-time results of votes and election immediately after the end of the voting session on the virtual meeting platform according to the regulations, and this disclosure shall continue at least 15 minutes after the chair has announced the meeting adjourned.

Article 20: Location of the chair and secretary of virtual-only shareholders meeting

When this Corporation convenes a virtual-only shareholders meeting, both the chair and secretary shall be in the same location, and the chair shall declare the address of their location when the meeting is called to order.

Article 21: Handling of disconnection

1. In the event of a virtual shareholders meeting, this Corporation may offer a simple connection test to shareholders prior to the meeting, and provide relevant real-time services before and during the meeting to help resolve communication technical issues.
2. In the event of a virtual shareholders meeting, when declaring the meeting open, the chair shall also declare, unless under a circumstance where a meeting is not required to be postponed to or resumed at another time under Article 44-20, paragraph 4 of the Regulations Governing the Administration of Shareholder Services of Public Companies, if the virtual meeting platform or participation in the virtual meeting is obstructed due to natural disasters, accidents or other force majeure events before the chair has announced the meeting adjourned, and the obstruction continues for more than 30 minutes, the meeting shall be postponed to or resumed on another date within five days, in which case Article 182 of the Company Act shall not apply.
3. For a meeting to be postponed or resumed as described in the preceding paragraph, shareholders who have not registered to participate in the affected shareholders meeting online shall not attend the postponed or resumed session.
4. For a meeting to be postponed or resumed under the second paragraph, the number of shares represented by, and voting rights and election rights exercised by the shareholders who have registered to participate in the affected shareholders meeting and have successfully signed in the meeting, but do not attend the postpone or resumed session, at the affected shareholders meeting, shall be counted towards the total number of shares, number of voting rights and number of election rights represented at the postponed or resumed session.

- 5 During a postponed or resumed session of a shareholders meeting held under the second paragraph, no further discussion or resolution is required for proposals for which votes have been cast and counted and results have been announced, or list of elected directors and supervisors.
- 6 When this Corporation convenes a hybrid shareholders meeting, and the virtual meeting cannot continue as described in second paragraph, if the total number of shares represented at the meeting, after deducting those represented by shareholders attending the virtual shareholders meeting online, still meets the minimum legal requirement for a shareholder meeting, then the shareholders meeting shall continue, and not postponement or resumption thereof under the second paragraph is required.
- 7 Under the circumstances where a meeting should continue as in the preceding paragraph, the shares represented by shareholders attending the virtual meeting online shall be counted towards the total number of shares represented by shareholders present at the meeting, provided these shareholders shall be deemed abstaining from voting on all proposals on meeting agenda of that shareholders meeting.
- 8 When postponing or resuming a meeting according to the second paragraph, this Corporation shall handle the preparatory work based on the date of the original shareholders meeting in accordance with the requirements listed under Article 44-20, paragraph 7 of the Regulations Governing the Administration of Shareholder Services of Public Companies.
- 9 For dates or period set forth under Article 12, second half, and Article 13, paragraph 3 of Regulations Governing the Use of Proxies for Attendance at Shareholder Meetings of Public Companies, and Article 44-5, paragraph 2, Article 44-15, and Article 44-17, paragraph 1 of the Regulations Governing the Administration of Shareholder Services of Public Companies, this Corporations hall handle the matter based on the date of the shareholders meeting that is postponed or resumed under the second paragraph.

Article 22: Handling of digital divide

When convening a virtual-only shareholders meeting, this Corporation shall provide appropriate alternative measures available to shareholders with difficulties in attending a virtual shareholders meeting online.

Article 23: This Procedure shall be subject to the approval of the Shareholders' Meeting before coming into force. The same procedure is applicable to any amendment thereto.
